TweetMyJobs.com - Over the years, he has constantly heard that searching for a job is a full-time effort, since there are hundreds of job boards to search, and most of them contain dead-end or stale opportunities. There had to be a better way, which is how TweetMyJOBS got conceived. The concept was simple: Wouldn't it be great if a job seeker got instant notification of a new job that was specific to the geographic location and job type that the person was looking for? [FREE]

Cash for Refrigerators - a new rebate program, meant to spur the purchase of energy-efficient refrigerators and other appliances will take effect in the coming months. Read more

Quote of the Day

Many people think that by hoarding money they are gaining safety for themselves. If money is your ONLY hope for independence, you will never have it. The only real security that a person can have in this world is a reserve of knowledge, experience, and ability. Without these qualities, money is practically useless. - Henry Ford

Elevate America Program ends October 31

Have you gotten your voucher?

The Elevate America program ends October 31, 2009.

Residents looking to improve their computer skills and become more marketable during this economic downturn can apply for free Microsoft training vouchers. The Microsoft Elevate America program is administered in Illinois by the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (DCEO) and other workforce development partners. More than 50,000 Elevate America vouchers are being distributed statewide, of which about 15,000 are still available. Read more... government is recruiting, they will not send emails or letters touting job openings from the federal stimulus plan.

Interview invites - Scammers will send emails to invite you to travel to an interview and recommend you arrange travel through THEIR "corporate office" for a discount. It is a way to obtain your credit card information.

Legitimate sites have been hit - Scammers have infiltrated legitimate job search sites. Be cautious when you post any of your information on-line or by email. Save emails with potential employers and ask that they contact you by phone or interview you in person.

The Networking Wisdom of Dale Carnegie in Five Easy Bullet Points.

Smile: This is such a simple, basic rule, yet people just don't think about it.

Ask a question: Joining a group engaged in conversation can be awkward. The best way to do so is to pose a question to the group after getting the gist of the conversation.

Listen: If you can get people to discuss their experiences and opinions-and listen with sincere interest-you can have a great conversation with someone without having to say much at all.

Business cards: Always have them handy. They're an effective way for you to leave your name behind so that people remember who you are.

Say the person's name: People like to hear their own name. Doing so makes the other person feel more comfortable, like you really know him and he knows you.

The value of networking is immeasurable.
