Money Smart

Enhance your $ skills

Financial education fosters financial stability. The more you know about credit and banking services, the more likely you will be to save, buy a home, or improve your financial health. Money Smart helps build that knowledge base.

Join Juliana Hackel, CRA Relationship Manager, Harris N.A., who will be guiding a day of discussions on 4 Money Smart topics. See the flyer

Incumbent
Workforce

(KCDEE) administers Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Title 1B/Trade Adjustment Assistance Act services for local Workforce Investment Area 5, and provides the tools that enhance your ability to find a new career for adults, dislocated workers and youth in Kane, DeKalb, and Kendall counties in Illinois.

Your business could receive up to $15K to train your employees for FREE!

Our Incumbent Worker Training Program provides resources for employers to train current workers in hopes of increasing the productivity and growth of their company.

Training is often needed to meet challenging skill requirements caused by new technology, retooling, and new product lines.

Net Work

The Networking Wisdom of Dale Carnegie in Five Easy Bullet Points.

Smile: This is such a simple, basic rule, yet people just don't think about it.

Ask a question: Joining a group engaged in conversation can be awkward. The best way to do so is to pose a question to the group after getting the gist of the conversation.

Listen: If you can get people to discuss their experiences and opinions-and listen with sincere interest-you can have a great conversation with someone without having to say much at all.

Business cards: Always have them handy. They're an effective way for you to leave your name behind so that people remember who you are.

Say the person's name: People like to hear their own name. Doing so makes the other person feel more comfortable, like you really know him and he knows you.

The value of networking is immeasurable.
